

The Northern Powergrid Foundation: Imagery consent

The following is a suggestion of how your project can collect consent from individuals who are present in photographs on behalf of local community and the Foundation

I give permission to [your organisation's name] and The Northern Powergrid Foundation to take, use, re-use, publish and re-publish photos of me or in which I may be included, in whole or in part, in any medium and format.

This includes use of my full name or first name to accompany the image(s).

I waive any right I might have to inspect or approve the finished products and the copy that accompanies it.

I have read the above agreement and understand that it is binding.
